

Taking America By Storm

Reality TV's newest "It" boys, the men of VHI's "StripSearch," have moved to the Riviera Hotel & Casino to add some testosterone to the Crazy Girls Showroom.

The seven finalists from the reality series—now known as American Storm—will take the same fans who watched them transform from normal boys to body-baring celebrities through a choreographed journey through time, beginning with the voyages of Christopher Columbus and ending with a patriotic salute to the armed forces.

Get the sexiest history lesson you'll ever receive by winning one of four pairs of tickets to see American Storm (valued at $100) for FREE anytime before Dec. 29 (not valid for Fri. and Sat. performances). Just log on to www.ilovevegas.com by Sept. 25 for your chance to win. Tickets must be reserved 24 hours in advance.

American Storm performs Wed.-Mon. at 7:30 p.m., with an additional performance Fri.-Sat. at 11 p.m. Tickets are $39.95 general admission or $49.95 VIP, plus tax. Visit the Riviera Hotel & Casino box office, www.american-storm.com or call 877-892-7469.

Curtain Call

The Las Vegas Academy Theatre announces its 2005-2006 season. October brings the grand opening of LVA's new state-of-the-art theatre with its production of The Anatomy of Gray, a play by Jim Leonard Jr. The season continues with Once On This Island in November; Shadowland in December and the world amateur premiere of Thoroughly Modern Millie in February, wrapping in April with a collection of faculty-directed one acts.

Season tickets are $50 for adults and $47 for students (a $60 value), and can be purchased from Sept. 1-Oct. 15 by calling Star Tickets Plus at 1-800-585-3737. Visit www.lvacademytheatre.org for more information.

Just for our readers, What's On and the Las Vegas Academy Theatre are giving away two pairs of season tickets for FREE. Just log on to www.ilovevegas.com by Sept. 25 for your chance to win.

One Man, A Hundred Entertainers

It's one of the hottest tickets in town—tickets to see eight-time Las Vegas Entertainer of the Year Danny Gans—and What's On has your tickets for FREE.

That's right—What's On and The Mirage are giving away a pair of VIP tickets to see the former baseball player-turned-impressionist anytime before Oct. 1, 2006 (with two-week advance reservation). Hailed by critics and audiences alike, Gans has been performing to sell-out Las Vegas crowds since 2000 thanks to his dead-on impersonations, which include Christopher Lloyd, Johnny Carson, Kermit the Frog and even Dr. Evil. From song and dance to Broadway renditions and old "Tonight Show" skits, Danny Gans truly does it all, which is why he just signed a contact extension with The Mirage through April 2008. Just log on to www.ilovevegas.com by Sept. 25 for your chance to experience the memorable one-man show that is Danny Gans.

Danny Gans performs Tue.-Thur. and Sat.-Sun. at 8 p.m. inside the Danny Gans Theatre. Tickets are $100. Show is dark Oct. 31, 2005-Feb. 6, 2006. Call 792-7777.
